

FRIDAY NEWCHURCH

1st December 2017

CHS PERFORMANCE

On Monday, Year 5 and 6 had the privilege of being invited to Culcheth High School to watch the dress rehearsal of their performance 'Legally Blonde-ish.' The show was humorous and entertaining and jam-packed with well-known songs. Both classes enjoyed the performance and it certainly got them into the Christmas spirit.

Sara Gopikrishnan Y5: I would give the play 10/10 because it was fun to watch and it was impressive how the main character learnt all the words.

Esme Appleton Y5: The songs were great and the cast performed really well.

Charlie Johnson Y6: I really enjoyed the show. I can't wait to see what show we can put on at the end of the year.

Nel Hill Y6: I loved the emotion and theme of the play. I can't wait to show off my talents at the end of the year production.

Y2 UPDATE

Year 2 have been extremely busy over the past few weeks. They have been learning lots in maths, including multiplication, division and working hard recently on fractions. In English, they have been using the story of The Rainbow Fish to improve our adjectives, expanded noun sentences and use of conjunctions in our writing and the results have been amazing. In science, they have been carrying out our own investigations and comparative tests to answer the questions. The class timed themselves running a set distance and then compared their times to other children in the school from different classes, even Mrs Conreen and Mrs Dixon had to have their times recorded too! In Geography, they have been creating their own maps based on their learning of LS Lowry's landscape paintings. All this, and they have been practising hard for the Christmas performance. You are in for a real treat!

Will Appleton: I liked seeing all of Culcheth on the map.

Alex Buffey: I liked it because we got children from other year groups and compared them with how fast they were with Year 2.

CHRISTMAS JOURNEY

Year 2 visited All Saint's Church in Newton-le-Willows to take part in the Christmas Journey. Reverend Stafford, former vicar at Newchurch Parish Church, specially invited our children to the experience and what an amazing experience it was. After entertaining the Bishop of Liverpool with a few impromptu Christmas songs, the children took a tour of the church which had been staged to tell each part of the Christmas story. The children got the opportunity to talk to Mary, hear the Angel Gabriel deliver the message she was having a baby and listen to the animals' account of the birth of Jesus. The children even got to have their picture taken with the Bishop of Liverpool and what a wonderful surprise it was to have our own Chair of Governors, Jean Williams, leading our group.

Zephaniah Challender: It was good and I enjoyed tasting the bread and I liked the talking animals in the stable.

Phoebe Smith: I liked the story that we were told and I liked the funny animals in the stable.

Mrs Narraway: What a wonderful way for the Christmas story to be told to the children. It was a privilege to be with Year 2.
