

FRIDAY NEWCHURCH

26th January 2018

YEAR 1 UPDATE

Year 1 have been looking at contemporary texts with familiar settings this half term. We have looked at books by Judith Kerr, Lauren Child and Patricia Cleveland-Peck. The children have loved the way animals have featured in the stories in rather surprising ways!

Harriet Burns: I liked 'You can't take an elephant on the bus', because it was funny!

Oscar Howard: I liked 'Mog in the dark', because he kept imagining things.

Alfie Ashmore: I liked the pig on the skateboard in 'You can't take an elephant on the bus'.

YEAR THREE GYMNASTICS!

As part of our PE curriculum, Year 3 have started their gymnastics unit. I have been astounded by their engagement, positive attitude and fabulous creativity! Each week the children have learned new skills and created sequences to music. As soon as the music comes on, the hall comes to life with ideas, team work and performance skills. I can't wait for next weeks lesson as we begin to include more equipment. I'm very impressed and very proud!

Daisy Pryce: I enjoyed making up a gymnastic routine with all my friends.

Josh Lowther: I have enjoyed doing different movements to music.

YOUNG VOICES 2018

What an absolutely fabulous evening it was at Young Voices last night. Newchurch choir filled Manchester Arena with their wonderful singing and wowed us all with their dance moves. It was enjoyable from start to finish and the children's behaviour was impeccable throughout the whole day and night.

Isabelle McCormack-Pym: I was surprised by how many people came to watch us. I enjoyed the special effects made with the torches.

Grace Campbell: I have enjoyed doing three Young Voices with school, and I was a bit sad that this was my last one.

COLOURS FOR PEACE TUESDAY 20 MARCH 2018

To commemorate the 25th Anniversary of the Warrington Bombings, the Tim Parry Johnathan Ball Peace Foundation would like to unite with Schools, Colleges and Companies across the UK, to come together for Peace.

On Tuesday 20th March 2018, we kindly ask pupils and teachers to join us in a "dress down" fundraising day, where people can wear the Foundation for Peace colours: blue, green and/or white. A small donation will go towards supporting our victims of terror and their families through our Survivors Assistance Network and it will allow us to continue to support communities that are in conflict.

Raise a minimum of £500 and the Peace Foundation's programme delivery team will offer a taster session of our Ofsted Approved Small Steps for Peace.
