

FRIDAY NEWCHURCH

26th April 2019

HEAD TEACHER APPOINTMENT

Message from Jean Williams, Chair of Governors. In the last week before the holidays we successfully completed the Head Teacher recruitment process and the governors are very pleased to announce that the new Headteacher leading Newchurch as from September 2019 will be Mrs Narraway. You will all know Mrs Narraway as our present excellent Deputy Headteacher and we are all very pleased to know that her devotion and commitment to Newchurch will continue into the future as the new Headteacher. I am sure you will add your congratulations alongside those of the staff and governors and will wish her every success in this new venture.

Y1 VISIT TO HOLCROFT GRANGE

Our Year 1 children had a lovely visit to Holcroft Grange this week. The children went along with their Easter hats and completed an exciting Easter egg hunt alongside lots of Easter celebrations. "I liked it when we went on an Easter egg hunt, I found a big golden egg" – Phoebe. "I liked our Easter competition. I liked the residents hats" – Aaliya. "I liked the residents, they were very kind, I spoke to a nice lady who had a nice hat" – Tom.

EASTER CELEBRATIONS

What an egg-cellent time our Newchurch robins had this week! Their artistic talent and fabulous imagination was clear to see, with some very eye-catching and humorous eggs. We also go to see who had a competitive streak when each class took part in an egg rolling competition. Well done to all our winners. This year in particular we were egg-tremely impressed with the Easter bonnet parade. The children were so proud of their creations. Thank you so much for all the time and energy given to making our Easter festivities such a success.
