

Pupil Privacy Notice

This document is to be used in respect of all pupils and in relation to any processing of personal data about them as well as their parents/carers. This document will be communicated to children and parents/carers when they first join the school as well as being made available on the school website, internally and externally. For younger children a simplified format is available.

Newchurch Community Primary School has a process for explaining this document to pupils. An annual assembly is used to communicate this information to pupils as well as sessions delivered as part of our Computing Curriculum about the importance of keeping personal data safe. A record of when this took place is kept by the Data Protection Officer.

Pupil Privacy Notice

Why are we giving this to you?

As your school we need to use information about you. We do this for a number of reasons. This form tells you what information we use about you and why we use it. It is very important that information about you is kept safe. We explain below how the school keeps your personal information safe.

If you want to know anything about what we do with information about you then please ask your teacher, or speak to your parents/carers and ask them to contact the school. The school wants you to feel free to raise any questions at all.

Mrs Narraway is the Data Protection Officer at our school.

Mrs Jayne Narraway - Data Protection Officer

Policy Statement

During your time at Newchurch Community Primary School, we will use information that we gather in relation to you for various purposes. Information that we hold in relation to you is known as “personal data”. This will include data that we obtain from you directly and data about you which we obtain from other people and organisations. We might also need to continue to hold your personal data for a period of time after you have left the school. Anything that we do with your personal data is known as “processing”.

This document sets out what personal data we will hold about you, why we process that data, who we share this information with, and your rights in relation to your personal data processed by us.

What information do we use about you?

We will collect, hold, share and otherwise use information about you set out in the boxes below:

● Name	● Telephone and email contact details	● Date of Birth
● Address	● Assessment information	● Details of previous/future schools
● Unique pupil number	● Behavioural information	● Language(s)
● Nationality	● Country of birth	● Eligibility for free school meals
● Photographs	● Attendance information	● CCTV images

We will also collect, hold, share and otherwise use some information about you which is special “special category personal data” and we will take extra care to make sure that this is kept safe:

● Racial or ethnic origin	● Religious beliefs	● Special educational needs and disability information
● Medical / health information or dietary requirements	● Genetic and biometric data	● Information relating to keeping you safe

Where do we get this information from?

We get this information from:

- You
- Your parents/carers, and other children’s parents/carers
- Teachers and other staff
- People from other organisations, like doctors or the local authority for example

Why do we use this information?

We use this information for lots of reasons, including:

- To make sure that we give you a good education and to support you through this

- To make sure that we are able to address and support any educational, health or social needs you may have
- To make sure everyone is treated fairly and equally
- To keep you and everyone at the school safe and secure
- To deal with emergencies involving you
- To celebrate your achievements
- To provide reports and additional information to your parents/carers

Some of these things we have to do by law. Other things we do because we need to so that we can run the school.

Sometimes we need permission to use your information. This includes taking pictures or videos of you to be used on our website or in the newspaper. Before we do these things we will ask you or if necessary your parent/carer for permission.

Why do we use special category personal data?

We may need to use the information about you which is special (mentioned above) where there is a specific interest to do so for example health and social care purposes or to provide you with equal opportunities and treatment. We will also use this information where you have given us permission to do so.

There may also be circumstances where we need to use your information in relation to legal claims, or to protect your vital interests and where you are unable to provide your consent.

How long will we hold information in relation to our pupils?

We will hold information relating to you only for as long as necessary. How long we need to hold on to any information will depend on the type of information. Were you to change school, we will usually pass your information to your new school.

Who will we share pupil information with?

We may share information about you with:

- Other schools or educational institutions you may attend or require support from;
- Local Authorities, to assist them in the exercise of their responsibilities in relation to education and training, youth support and safeguarding purposes
- The Department for Education, as required by the law
- Contractors, to enable them to provide an effective service to the school, such as school meal providers or external tutors

Keeping this information safe

It is very important that only people who need to use your information can see it. The school keeps your information safe by:

- Storing only the minimum amount of personal information safely and securely and for the shortest amount of time.
- Restricting access to your personal information so that people only see your personal data if they need to see it to perform their role.
- Viewing data protection as an ongoing process requiring the whole school to be continually mindful of their responsibilities.
- Working with the Local Authority to keep up to date and make sure we are compliant.

Your rights in relation to your information

You have the right to:

- Ask to see the information we hold about you
- Object to what we are doing with your information
- Have inaccurate or incomplete information about you amended
- Ask us to stop doing certain things with your information in some cases
- Ask that decisions about you are not made using automatic systems
- Claim against the school in certain circumstances where you have suffered as a result of the school breaching your data protection rights

If you feel it necessary to do any of the above, you can speak to your class teacher, or a member of the Data protection team. The school does not have to meet all of your requests and we will let you know where we are unable to do so.

Concerns

If you are concerned about how we are using your personal data then you can speak with Mrs Narraway or if necessary you or your parent/ carer can contact an outside agency.

The Information Commissioner's Office

<https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>.