16 Early Years Provision
16.1 Records to be kept by Registered Persons - All Cases
	Basic file description	Data Prot Issues	Statutory Provisions	Retention Period [operational]
16.1.1	The name, home address and date of birth of each child who is looked after on the premises	Y		Closure of setting + 50 years [These could be required to show whether or not an individual child attended the setting in a child protection investigation]
16.1.2	The name, home address and telephone number of a parent of each child who is looked after on the premises	Y		If this information is kept in the same book or on the same form as in 16.1.1 then the same retention period should be used as in 16.1.1 If the information is stored separately, then destroy once the child has left the setting (unless the information is collected for anything other than emergency contact)
16.1.3	The name, address and telephone number of any person who will be looking after children on the premises	Y		See 16.4.5 below
16.1.4	A daily record of the names of children looked after on the premises, their hours of attendance and the names of the persons who looked after them	Y	The Day Care and Child Minding (National Standards) (England) Regulations 2003	The regulations say that these records should be kept for 2 years (SI20031996 7(1b)). If these records are likely to be needed in a child protection setting (see 16.1.1 above) then the records should be retained for closure of setting + 50 years

16.1 Records to be kept by Registered Persons - All Cases
	Basic file description	Data Prot Issues	Statutory Provisions	Retention Period [operational]
16.1.5	A record of accidents occurring on the premises and incident books relating to other incidents	Y	The Day Care and Child Minding (National Standards) (England) Regulations 2003 ¹⁰	DOB of the child involved in the accident or the incident + 25 years If an adult is injured then the accident book must be kept for 7 years from the date of the incident
16.1.6	A record of any medicinal product administered to any child on the premises, including the date and circumstances of its administration, by whom it was administered, including medicinal products which the child is permitted to administer to himself, together with a record of parent's consent	Y	The Day Care and Child Minding (National Standards) (England) Regulations 2003 ¹¹	DOB of the child being given/taking the medicine + 25 years
16.1.7	Records of transfer	Y		One copy is to be given to the parents, one copy transferred to the Primary School where the child is going
16.1.8	Portfolio of work, observations and so on	Y		To be sent home with the child
16.1.9	Birth certificates	Y		Once the setting has had sight of the birth certificate and recorded the necessary information the original can be returned to the parents. There is no requirement to keep a copy of the birth certificate.

¹⁰ The regulations say that these records should be kept for 2 years (SI20031996 7(1b)). The Statute of Limitations states that a minor may make a claim for 7 years from their eighteenth birthday, therefore the retention should be for the longer period.

¹¹ The regulations say that these records should be kept for 2 years (SI20031996 7(1b)). The NHS records retention schedule states that any records relating to a child under the age of 18 should be retained until that child reaches the age of 25 years. Therefore, the retention should be DOB of the child being given/taking the medicine + 25 years
